JUNIORS PROVE

Surprise Chief--it is a MINI SKIRT!

The plot revolves around the sophisticated Chantal Stacey, (played by Gloria Snyder) who is a startling combination of Paris and Boston. Her attempts to trap a husband lead her to playboy photographer, Gene Wright (played by Craig Leo). To insure a successful marriage, Chantel's mother teaches her to treat her husband like a dog. "Praise him when he is learning to fetch and carry". "Be sure to frolic with your pet a part of everyday."

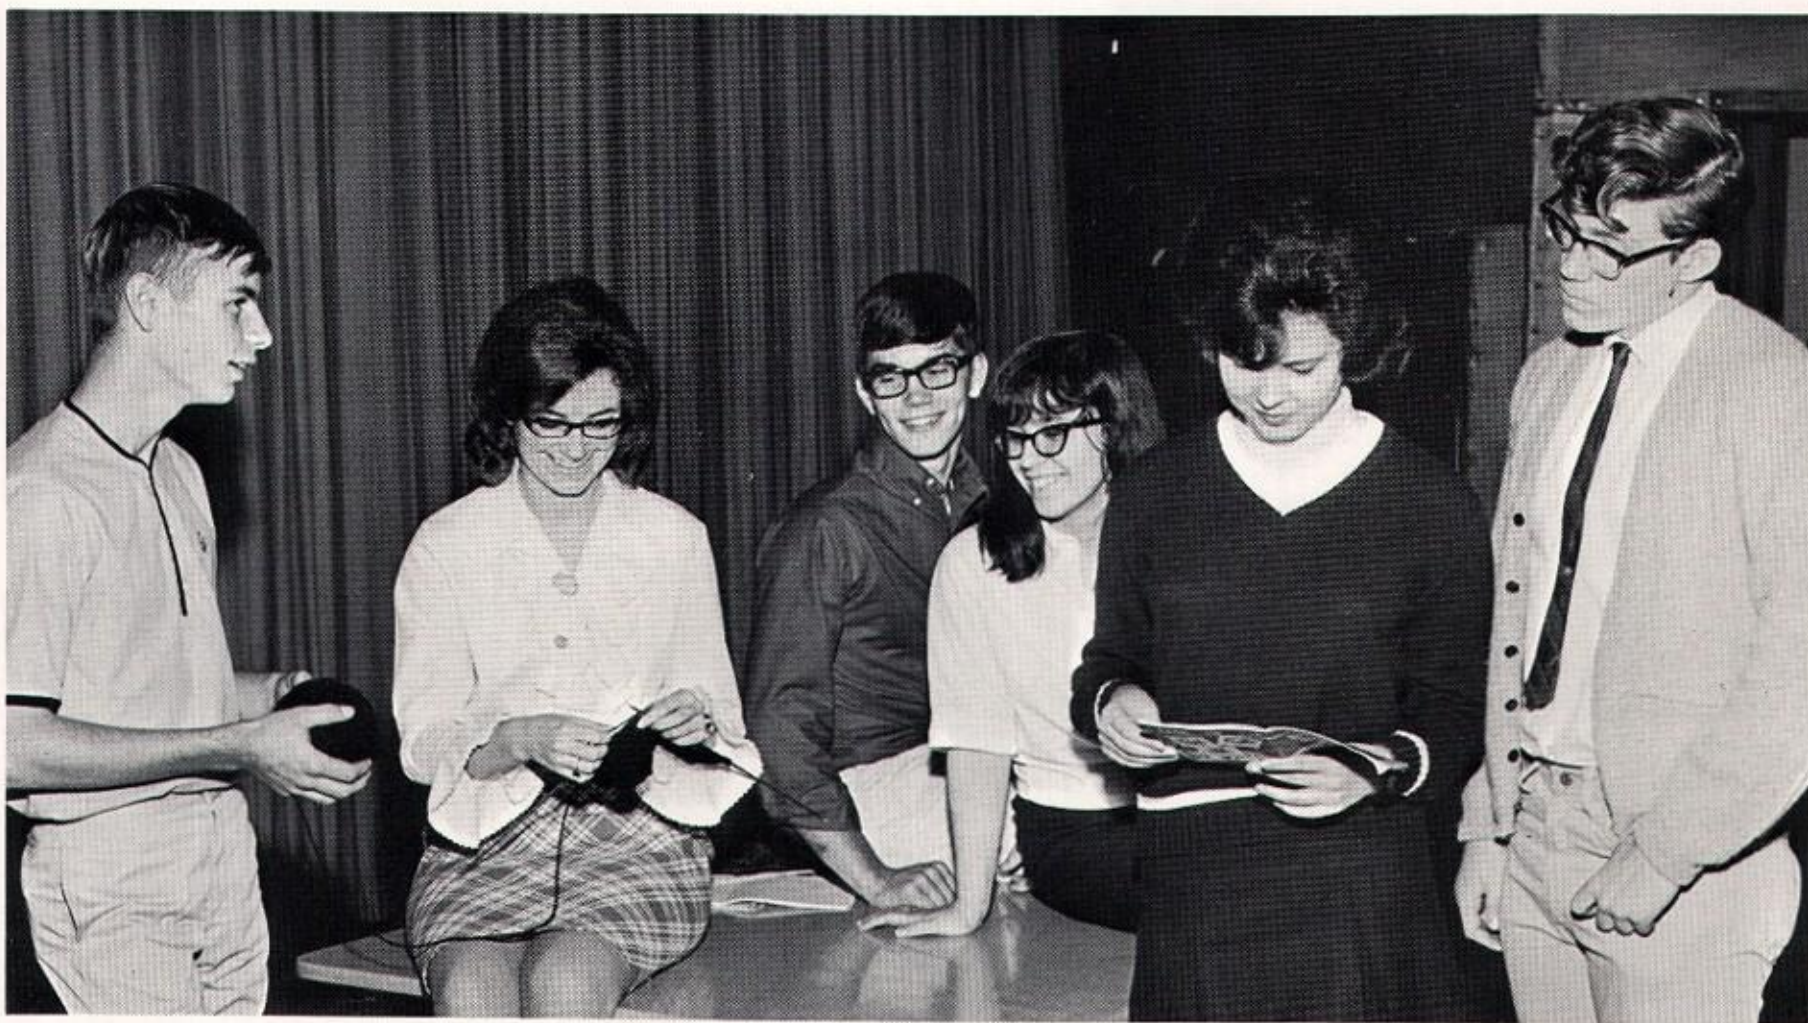

The Director is shown the cast's appreciation with a beautiful sweater.

DIANA BUSHONG, REIGNS OVER HOMECOMING

Diana, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Scott, R # 1 Marengo, Ohio, reigned over a very damp homecoming scene.

She is active in Honor Society, F.B.L.A. and has been a Varsity cheerleader.

The Homecoming was wet and muddy but, the queen and the court made the evening brighten up and sparkle a bit.

The Seniors put in a lot of time and help to make this a memorable evening, and we think everyone who attended will agree, it was just that.

The queen and her attendants rode in the ceremonial parade. Last year's queen, Carolyn Kearns Hollingsworth, placed the crown upon the head of Queen Diana. Our colorful marching band faithfully performed despite the steady downpour. It takes more than rain to dampen the spirits of our student body and friends. The lively cheerleaders kept the festive feeling of homecoming alive all during the game.

Diana receives a beautiful bouquet of burnt orange mums, from Co-Captain Ray Noble.

Diana presents the football to Co-Captain, Ron Vest.

"THREE COINS IN A FOUNTAIN"

"Three Coins in a Fountain" set the theme for the Jr. and Sr. Prom and Banquet, May 6.

Long remembered will be the delicious dinner prepared by the Junior mothers and served by the underclassmen.

Cherished in the pages of our memories will always be the Fountain Lounge. Under the deep blue sky sparkling with millions of stars, is the fountain. A fountain with glistening driplets of water that transform the pool below into dancing ripples. Ripples that hold the hopes, dreams, memories, and wishes of the guests.

Adding to this romantic atmosphere is the quiet music of the Wesley Allyn Quintet.

Down the street from the Lounge is the 3 Coin Cafe. Here a couple can rest weary feet and drink a toast over candlelight to one's date.

Memories of the Prom will forever be cherished as will that one common dream: "Just one wish will be granted--Make It Mine!"

Dancers gather around the fountain, the center of attraction.

Kay Stiltner sings of an "Impossible Dream"

"PILLOW TALK"

The play was about a crazy guy in love with all girls. Brad Allen and interior decorator, Jan Marrow, who isn't interested in anything but her work--till she meets Rex Stetson which turns out who Rex really is she does a beautiful job working over his apartment. Only trouble is, Jan gets caught in her own trap, she finds out that Allen wants to marry her. In the end, she gets bit!

And I get to redecorate the Spiders Web!

"Is this the Bill of Rights?"

WEATHER HINDERS TEAM

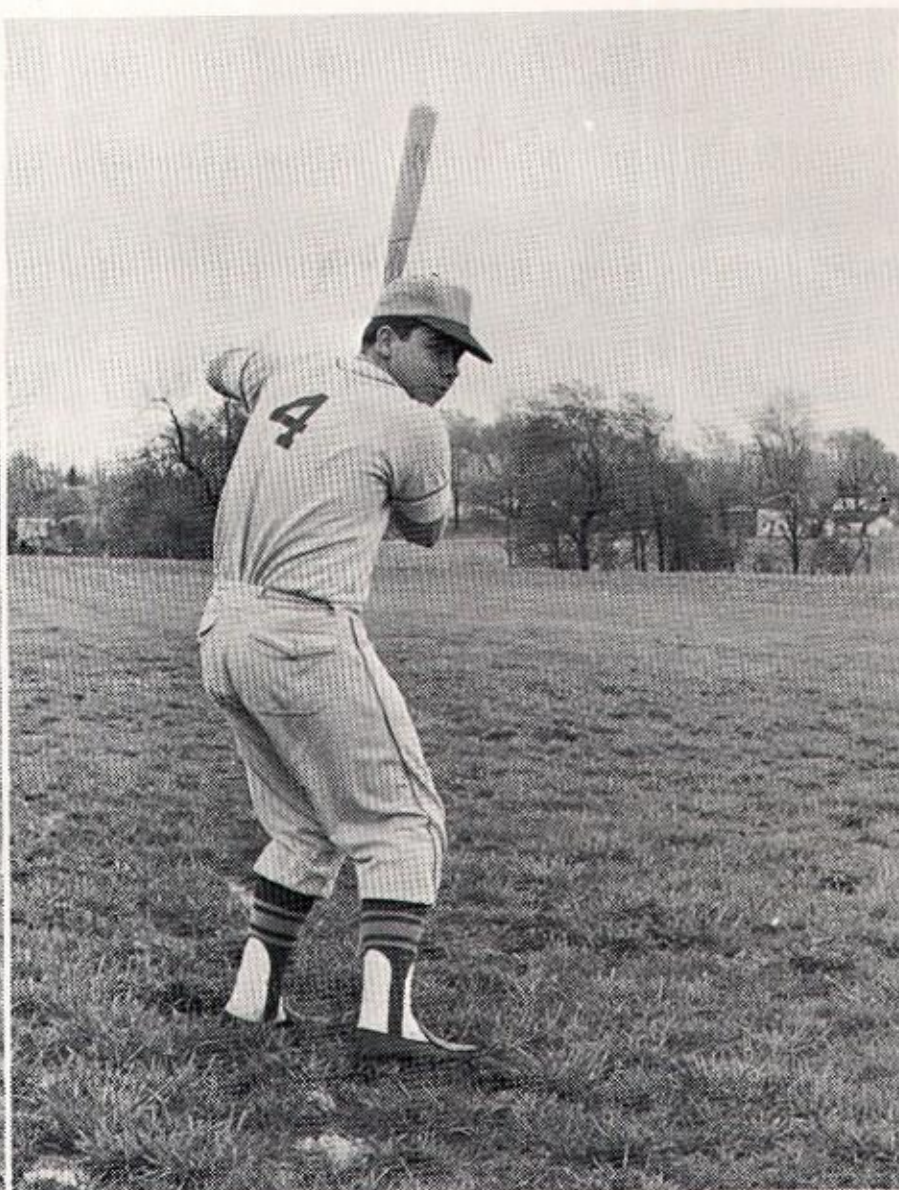

Extremely wet weather this spring hindered the Highland Scottie Baseball team of 1967. Although the team did not have a winning season, the spirit was high, and each game was looked forward to with anticipation. The four Seniors on the team were real "scrappers", and even a broken arm did not stop them from fighting for a Victory. All in all, the season proved rewarding to the team in the way of spirit, sportsmanship, and teamwork.

MEDICAL CAREERS CLUB

Formerly: Future Nurses Club

Linda, Sandy, and Beth work on Thanksgiving fruit baskets.

For their community project this year, the Medical Careers Club made fruit baskets and delivered them to the Chesterville Convalescent Home. Sixty-five baskets were made and delivered after school just before Thanksgiving.

The members and our advisor, Mrs. Ruth Patrick, went to an Open House Tea at the Grant Hospital School of Nursing in Columbus for the trip of the year.

The purpose of the Medical Careers Club is to bring together young people interested in careers in medicine.

This year was a first for the M.C.C. of Highland. It was the first year a boy has ever held an office in this club. Ray Weaver held the office of Vice President.

The F.H.A. is a very active organization. Each year we have new and different ideas for furthering interest in our club.

This year we went to Pleasant Hill on a camp-out where we learned different kinds of safety.

We work for an Award of Merit that only special clubs can receive.

We also send girls to the State F.H.A. convention. That usually turns out to be quite interesting. During the school year we help decorate the lobby for Christmas. All year long we try to further interest in our school.

An annual event for the Honor Society is their banquet. It is held for the members and their parents. It is to help the parents realize the importance of Scholarship, leadership, character and service.

The purpose of the National Honor Society is to develop character and service. It stimulates scholarship in the secondary schools and endeavors to place education on a higher level. In doing so the attributes of character, service, and leadership are stressed in the high school; in order that the student attains a higher education.

GLEE CLUB; NEW ADDITION TO MUSIC DEPARTMENT

The Glee Club is a new addition to the Highland Music Department. Formed by Mrs. Ledford, head of the Music Department, this club added a great deal to the first annual operetta. The operetta, "Sweet Anne Page," was a big success, and plans for another musical are being dreamed about by all musically talented students. The Glee Club also presented many programs throughout the school year much to the enjoyment of the Highland student body. The formation of this club was met with enthusiasm, and qualifications for membership were high. Keen competition, and fun made this club one of the highlights of the school year.

Jeanette, Connie, Pam and Vick represent Highland at the Convention.

"Let us entertain you with Joyful Song"

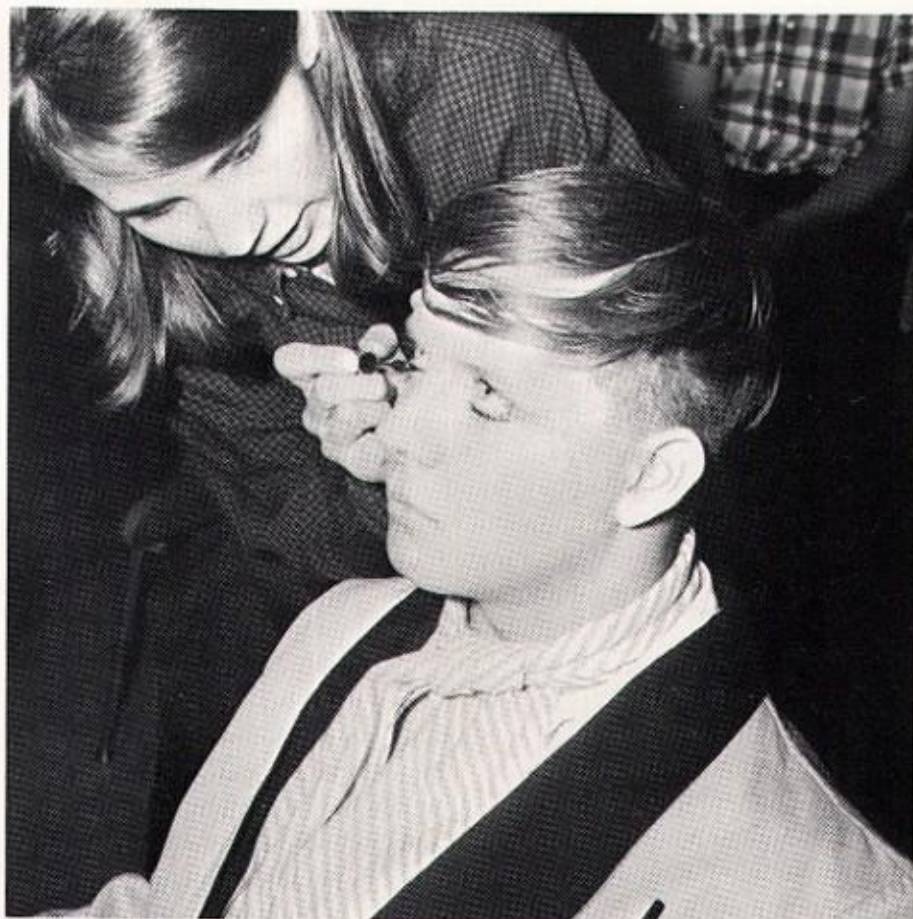

ENTERTAINMENT AFTER DINNER

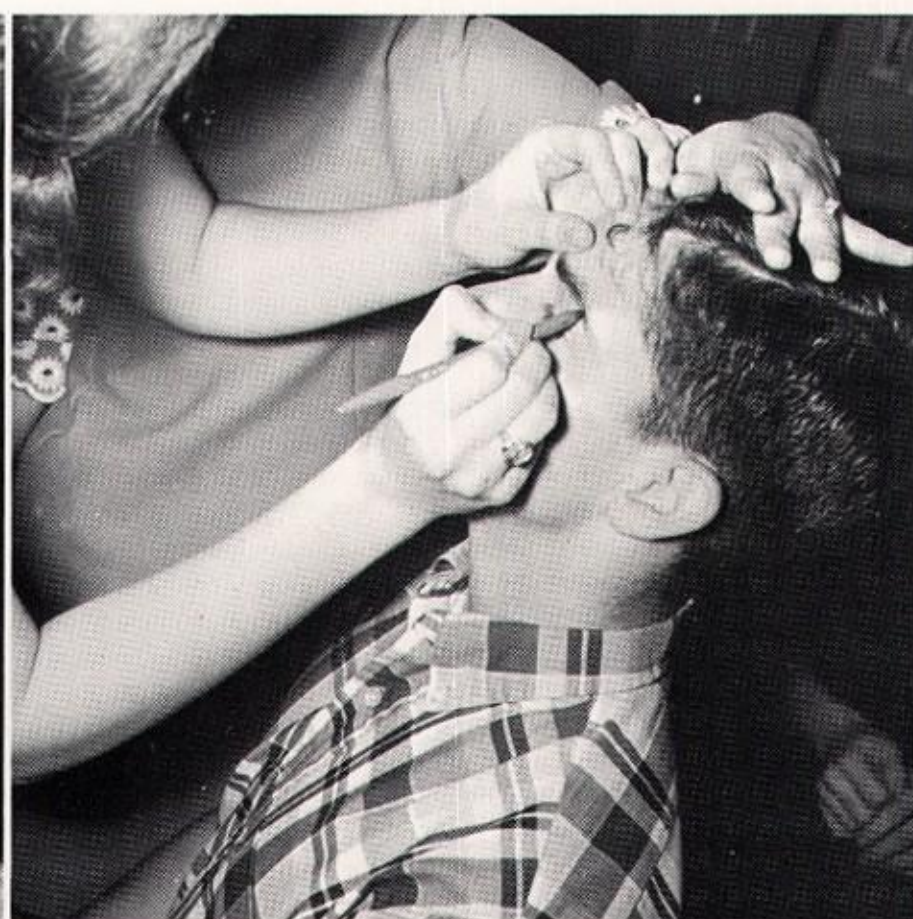

The Trio Presents Ballads and Folk Songs.

Barb serenades us with Popular Selections of "now".

Mike Follen, back stage, is being transformed into a roguish theatrical agent.

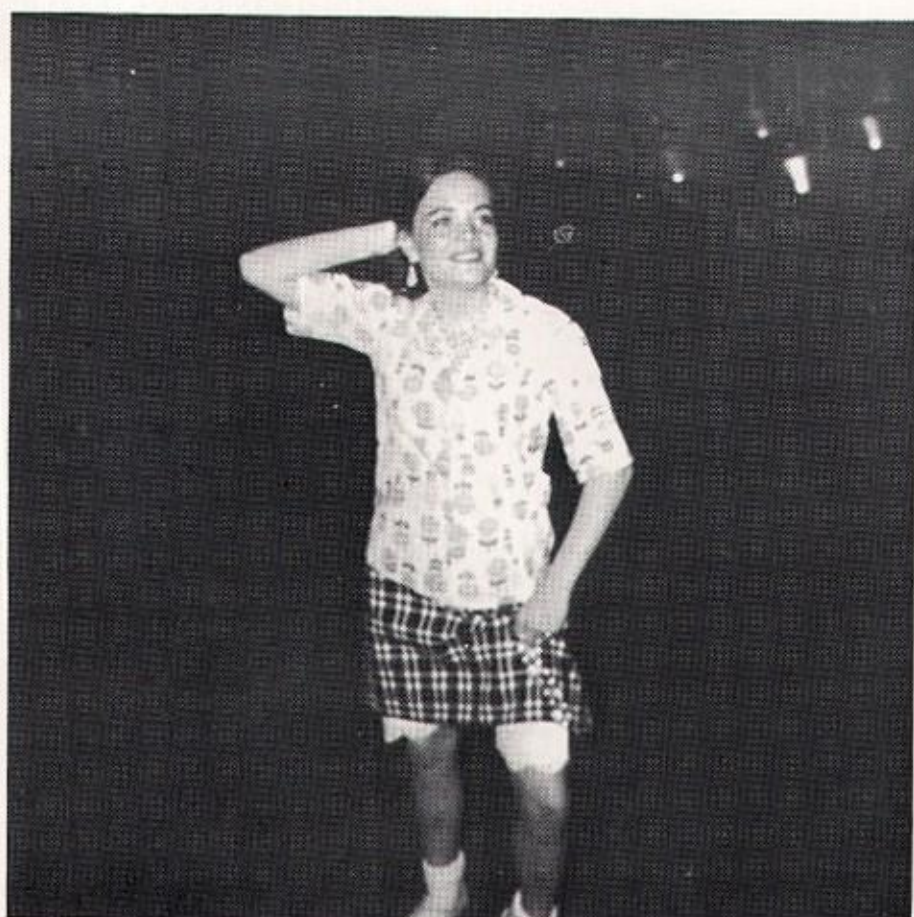

Ron Davidson, acting the part of Len Harrington, is having his eyebrows darkened for more "I" appeal.

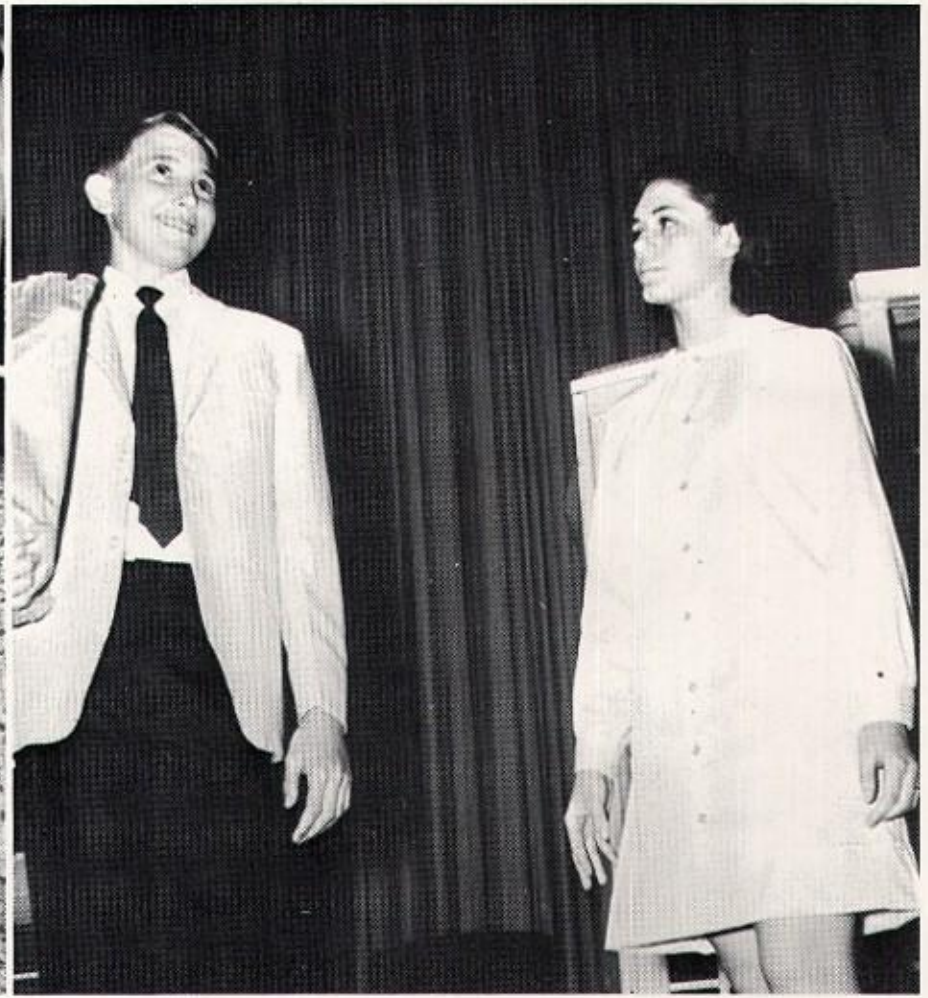

GLEE CLUB PRESENTS

OPERETTA

Kay Stiltner, playing the role of Jane Tutwiller, was self-centered and arrogant. She wanted a part with the Operetta Company, but had no talent.

Rehearsing are the Gorgeous Chorus Girls: Joyce Puckett, Dora Mathias, Barb Ault, and Donna Spearman.

Mike Follen, acting as Tyler St. Clair, manager of an Operetta Company, plays the "heavy" in this scene.

"SWEET ANNE PAGE"

This year the Music Department attempted a variation in the usual musical activities, "SWEET ANNE PAGE", an operetta, made this years' activities in music complete.

Pretty little Anne Page, having been raised in an orphan's home, becomes the maid-of-all-work in a large summer boarding house, run by a stern and fault-finding Mrs. Tutwiller. Mrs. Tutwiller is a widow with a daughter, Jane, who is the same age as Anne. Jane wishes to become an actress but possesses none of the qualifications necessary.

A large Opera Company stays at the boarding house while presenting an opera a few miles away.

Wilton, the leading man, falls in love with Anne, much to the fury of Patricia Varon, an actress, who is also in love with Wilton.

Anne, who has a sweet voice and all the qualities of an actress, finds a manuscript and becomes engrossed in it. Zaza Belasco, an elderly actress who was once a great star, hears Anne and coaches her in the role.

Varon gets angry and leaves the opera company at the last moment. Zaza presents Anne to the stage manager and convinces him to let Anne play the part. Anne went on stage and became a big success.

Tom Webb, plays the role of Abner Todd. He is that "cute" type of boy that all the girls adore.

Bob Hartwell, vocal soloist, sings "Laura" with band accompanying him.

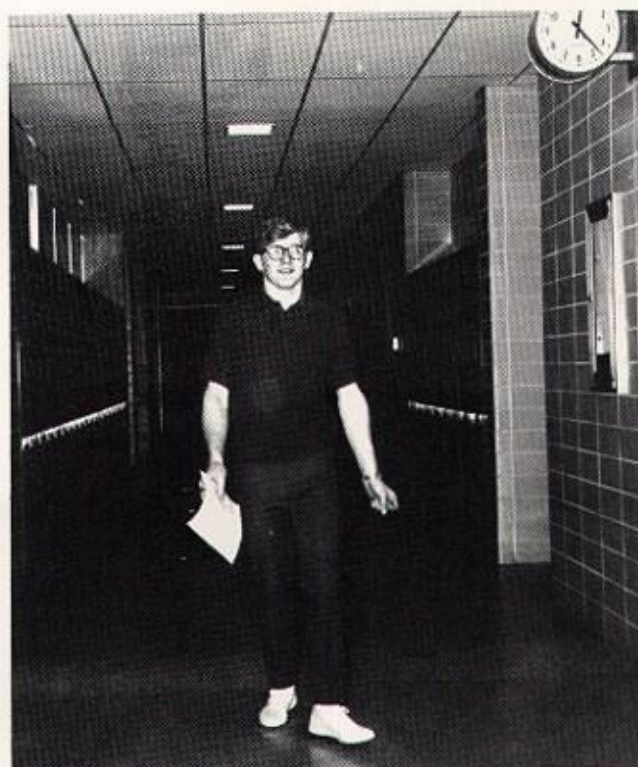

Joyce Puckett, senior band member, directs the band at Spring Concert.

BAND STUDENTS PARTICIPATE

Ray Weaver, Senior, plays theme of Concert, "Wonderland by Night." He was accompanied by Kay Stiltner on the Piano.

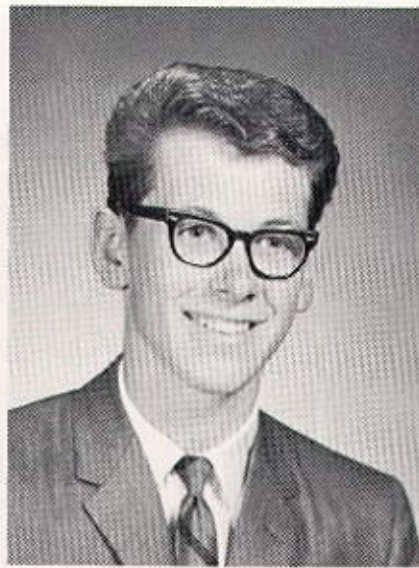

Sue McCormick, Senior Band Club President, announcing instrumental selections.
